William Lynn Dromgold, (10 May 1899 – 4 Dec 1999), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

William Lynn "Drummy" Dromgold, 100, of Kinkora Pythian Home, Duncannon, died Saturday, Dec. 4, 1999 at the home.

He was born May 10, 1899 in Saville Twp. to the late Howard and J. Annie (Hench) Dromgold.

He was retired from Atlantic Richfield and was a former substitute mail carrier from the Duncannon Post Office. He was a graduate of New Bloomfield High School and attended Penn State University, studying electrical engineering.

He was a member of Duncannon's Otterbein United Methodist Church, a Sunday school teacher and superintendent for 22 years, choir member, former trustee and lay delegate; past president of Duncannon Borough Council; board member of Perry County Sunday School Association; member of Shermanata Grange and Harrisburg Rose Society; former chairman of Tri-County United Fund and camp director of Perry County Christian Endeavor; former EMT and driver for Duncannon EMS and in 1988 was the oldest EMT in the state; active in Boy Scouting in Duncannon for 72 years, former Boy Scoutmaster of Troop 64 for 42 years and scout committee coordinator; founder of Boy Scout Recycling Program; and recipient of the Silver Beaver Award in Scouting; and a great outdoorsman who climbed Peters Mountain in his 90s with the scouts.

He was the widower of Annie Myers Dromgold.

Surviving are a sister, Dorothy Mowrer of Lancaster, two grandsons, Karl Libhart of Boalsburg and William Libhart of Mountville; and three great-grandsons.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Virginia Libhart, and brothers and sisters.

Services were held Dec. 8 in his church with the Rev. Michael Brossman officiating. Burial was in Bloomfield Cemetery.

Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to his church, 301 N. High St., Duncannon 17020, or Boy Scout Troop 64, c/o Thom Hammaker, Scoutmaster, 851 Dellville Road, Duncannon.

www.theperryhistorians.org