Nancy L. (Hackenberg) Holland, (11 Dec 1942 – 3 Jan 2011), 68, Duncannon: Daily Item, The (Sunbury, PA) - Tuesday, January 4, 2011

— DUNCANNON — Nancy L. Holland, 68, of Duncannon, passed away on Monday, Jan. 3, 2011, at her home.

She was born Dec. 11, 1942, in Bellefonte, a daughter of the late John Ammon and Dorothy L. (Ertel) Hackenberg.

She was a graduate of Middleburg High School and Central Penn Business School. She was retired from the Lancaster-Lebanon Intermediate Unit No. 13 but still worked as a supervisor with DST. Nancy enjoyed watching the Fox News Channel. She was an avid Sarah Palin fan, enjoyed tending to her rose garden and most especially enjoyed her grandchildren.

She is survived by one daughter and son-in-law, Ronda L. and Leonard Shultz, of Duncannon; two sons and daughters-in-law, Todd D. and Michelle Holland, of New Bloomfield, and Matt D. and Karen Holland, of Telford; one sister, Marjorie Hackenberg, of Mifflinburg; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Stanley and Judy Ertel, of Rochester, N.Y., and H. James and Cathy Hackenberg, of Spring Grove; four grandchildren, Drew Holland, Paige Holland, Lauren Holland and Sarah Holland; and her three granddogs, Cole, Buddy and Hershey.

She was preceded in death by one brother, John Hackenberg, and one sister, Minerva Hackenberg.

A viewing will be held from 11 to noon Saturday at the Ronald C.L. Smith Funeral Home, 325 N. High St., Duncannon, followed by the funeral at noon with the Rev. David J. Schreffler officiating.

Burial will be in Duncannon Cemetery, Duncannon.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Nancy's memory to the Humane Society of Greater Harrisburg, 7790 Grayson Road, Harrisburg, PA 17111.