

Betty A. (Ordway) Ayres, (18 Jul 1934 – 29 Sep 2012), Perry County Times, 11 Oct 2012

Betty A. Ayres, 78, of Landisburg died Saturday, Sept. 29, 2012 in Stonebridge Health and Rehabilitation Center, Duncannon.

She was born July 18, 1934 in Elmira, N.Y., to the late Daniel D. and Margaret E. (Carr) Ordway.

She had been a volunteer at The Manor at Perry Village for 17 years and at Stonebridge for two years and won an award with RSVP for her volunteer crocheting for wounded veterans, making lap robes; was a member of Dellville United Methodist Church and a former member of Fassett Baptist Church, Fassett, Pa.; and loved greyhounds, camping, gardening and country and bluegrass music.

Surviving are her husband, Harold W. Ayres; three children, Janel L. Leber of Monroeton, Pa., Kenneth D. of Landisburg and John D. of New Bloomfield; two sisters, Dorothy J. Ontl of Elmira Heights, N.Y., and Barbara J. Rawley of Waverly, N.Y.; and five grandchildren.

Services were held Oct. 4 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with the Rev. Kurt Herzberg officiating. Burial was in Gillett Cemetery, Gillett, Pa.

Memorial contributions may be made to her church, 806 Dellville Road, Duncannon 17020.