

Harry E. Barnes, (22 Oct 1946 – 18 Oct 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, October 27, 2012

Harry E. Barnes, 65, of Millerstown died Thursday, Oct. 18, 2012, at Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill.

He was born Oct. 22, 1946, in Derry Twp., Mifflin County, to the late Newell C. and Elizabeth M. (Hoffman) Barnes.

He was employed as an auto body technician for Barnes Body Shop, Thompsontown, and earlier in life worked construction for Dave Barnes Construction, Thompsontown; an Army Reserves veteran during the Vietnam War; a former member of American Legion Post 298, Mifflintown, and a member of Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 925, Millerstown; and enjoyed woodworking in his shop.

Surviving are wife of 47 years, Sandra E. (Dressler) Barnes; a daughter, Stacey G. Zimmerman of Thompsontown; four brothers, James, Joseph, Jonnie and David, all of Thompsontown; a granddaughter, Noelle E. Lebkicher of Thompsontown; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Jack, Paul and Thomas.

www.theperryhistorians.org