

Edward Sine Berrier, (20 Mar 1923 – 1 Jan 2011), Perry County Times, Monday, January 13, 2011

Edward Sine Berrier, 87, of Harrisburg died Saturday, Jan. 1, 2011, at Golden Living Center, Harrisburg.

He was born March 20, 1923 in Fairmont, W.Va., to Joseph and Grace (Sine) Berrier.

He was a brick and stone mason, working on such buildings as the National Treasury Building in Washington, D.C., the courthouse in Alexandria, Va., and many other state buildings including the Pennsylvania State Capitol. He worked for Keiser Construction, Snyder's and Carretti's.

He was a 1941 graduate of Duncannon High School; an Army veteran of World War II, serving in the Pacific Theater; recording secretary for the Bricklayer's Union; a life member of the American Legion and a member of Calvary United Methodist, Lower Paxton Twp.; and enjoyed family genealogy and playing the piano.

He was the widower of Alice (Graff) Berrier, to whom he was married 62 years.

Surviving are a son, Robert Hartman-Berrier of Halifax, Nova Scotia; two daughters, Boni Rush and Sandi Byerly, both of Harrisburg; 12 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

Auer Cremation Services of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to AseraCare Hospice, 75 S. Houcks Road, Harrisburg 17109.