

Marion L. Black, (16 Jan 1944 – 24 Dec 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, January 5, 2013

Marion L. Black, 68, of York Springs, died Monday, Dec. 24, 2012 at Hershey Medical Center.

He was born Sunday, Jan. 16, 1944 in Carlisle to the late Charles B. and Mary Florence (Smith) Black.

He had been employed by R.H. Shepherd, Hanover, for 36 years and owned and operated Marion Black's Barber Shop in York Springs for nearly 40 years; was a 1964 graduate of Perry Joint High School, New Bloomfield, and attended Southeastern Bible College in Florida and went to barber school in Harrisburg; served in the Army from 1966 to 1968 during the Vietnam War; and a member of Green Springs Rod and Gun Club, Hanover, and North American Saab Club.

Surviving are his wife of 42 years, Connie L. (Miller) Black; two sons, Jeremy L. of Verona, N.J., and Justin L. of York Springs; a grandson, Blaine Black, and granddaughter, Braelyn Black, both of York Springs; two sisters, Millie Grosby of Kansas City, Mo., and Gayle Gottshall of Harrisburg; and two brothers, Darwyn of Carlisle and Kenneth of York Springs.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Dale.

Services were held Dec. 29 in Heritage Assembly of God, Gettysburg with the Rev. Jeff Wilson officiating.

Burial was in Oak Lawn Memorial Gardens.

Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Heritage Assembly of God, 1575 Chambersburg Road, Gettysburg 17325, or Chapel Hill Church of God, 4521 Oxford Road, York Springs 17372.

www.theperryhistorians.org