

Paul W. Boose, (30 Mar 1926 – 11 Sep 2012), Perry County Times, 20 Sep 2012

Paul W. Boose, 86, of Royer Road, New Bloomfield, died Tuesday, Sept. 11, 2012 at his Centre Twp. home.

He was born March 30, 1926 in Adams County to George and Florence (Gulden) Boose.

He was retired from Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill, and a former employee of the former Zeigler Feed Mill in New Bloomfield; a member of New Bloomfield Fire Company and Sportsmen's Association; and enjoyed hunting, fishing and socializing with the gang at Swenson's gas station in New Bloomfield.

He was the widower of Jennie E. Boose, who died in 1991.

Surviving are a son, Paul A. of Landisburg; two daughters, Trudy Gardner and Debra Gardner, both of New Bloomfield; three brothers, Ray of North Carolina, Lynn of Loysville and John of Adams County; a sister, Dorothy "Dottie" Trostle of Duncannon; eight grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Clyde, and two sisters, Grace Farquhar and Hilda Stone.

Services were held Sept. 14 in Boyer Funeral Home, New Bloomfield, with the Rev. David Longstreet officiating.

Burial was in Centre Presbyterian Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org