

Mary (Weaver) Bornman, (2 May 1839 – 25 Jan 1924), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Mrs. Mary Bornman, widow of Daniel Bornman, late of Wheatfield Township, died at the home of her son Christ Bornman, of Newport one Friday morning at 11 o'clock. She was aged 84 years 8 months and 23 days. The deceased had been visiting at the home of her son when she was stricken with the fatal illness. While maintaining her home and in Wheatfield Township, she has spent much of her time with her children during the past several years.

The deceased was the daughter of Christian Weaver, of Wheatfield Township, where she had resided practically all her life. She is survived by the following children; Mrs. Catherine Way, Crist Bornman, of Newport; John, Jacob, and William Bornman, of Wheatfield Township; David Bornman and Ida Lower of this place, John Weaver, of this place a brother. She'd been a member of the Snyder's United Brethren Church for many years. The funeral services were conducted on Thursday morning by Rev. B.P.S. Busey pastor of the local United Brethren church. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

www.theperryhistorians.org