

Commemorative Biographical Encyclopedia of The Juniata Valley, comprising the Counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata and Perry, Pennsylvania. 1897, J. M. Runk and Company, Publishers, Chambersburg, PA

Newton J. Briner, Green Park, Perry County, Pa., was born near Loysville, Pa., March 18, 1865. He is a son of Solomon and Annie (Kiner) Briner. He received his elementary education in the common schools of Tyrone Township, and afterwards attended the Tressler Orphan Home School, the academy at Bloomfield, Pa., and the Cumberland Valley State Normal School, Shippensburg, Pa. He was a graduate of the normal school, in the class of '92, and since that time his entire attention during the school term has been given to teaching. During the interim between school terms, Mr. Briner is occupied in agricultural pursuits, which is not only directly profitable to him, but by affording relief from the sedentary life of the school room, no doubt conduces to his physical health, and helps him to maintain his standard as a teacher. He has taught three terms in the Loysville public schools, and is now in his second term in the schools of Green Park.

Newton J. Briner was married at his wife's home, his present residence, December 7, 1893, to Charlotte, daughter of William and Fannie (Noll) Bernheisel. Mr. Briner is a member of Landisburg Lodge, No. 707, Jr. O. U. A. M. He is an adherent of the Democratic Party. Mr. and Mrs. Briner attend the Reformed Church, of which they are members.

www.theperryhistorians.org