

Samuel M. Brunner, (Died February 1941), Duncannon Record, February 27, 1941

Samuel Brunner, of Duncannon, R.D. 2, who has been operating a threshing business and saw mill practically his entire life, died Friday in Harrisburg Hospital. He was 68 years old.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary Brunner, four daughters; Mrs. James Smith, Hershey; Mrs. Ray Fry, Shermans Dale; Mrs. Merle Messiner, Rutherford Heights; and Miss Daisy J. Brunner, at home, five sons, Morris McKinley Brunner and Wilber W. Brunner, at home; James A. Brunner, Duncannon; and Charles T. Brunner, at home; ten grandchildren four sisters, Mrs. William Sowers, Mrs. Annie Singer, Mrs. Frank Oren, all of Newport and Mrs. George Fultz, New Bloomfield, and three brothers, Frank of Penbrook; David of Indiana; and Ray, of Illinois.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Dellville United Brethren Church, The Rev. Jerome Stambach, pastor of the church officiating and burial was made in Dellville Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org