

Stella M. (Collins) Burgard, (17 Nov 1942 – 20 Oct 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, November 3, 2012

Stella M. Burgard, 69, of Duncannon died Saturday, Oct. 20, 2012.

She was born Nov. 17, 1942 in Doylesburg to the late John and Myrtle (Yocum) Collins.

She worked as a floral designer in floral boutiques, including Perfect Affair in Enola; was a volunteer for Duncannon EMS; and enjoyed arts and crafts and vacationing in different countries, especially Africa.

She was the widow of Gene Burgard.

Surviving are a companion, Gene Hoffman of Duncannon; a son, Bret L. Stockslager, a sister, Diana K. Keebaugh, two granddaughters, Gabriella L. and Raeleigh R. Stockslager, all of Chambersburg; two nieces Heidi J. Boyer of Alexandria, Va., and Tina Smith of Phoenixville; a stepson, Greg L. Burgard; and a stepgrandson, Wyatt Burgard.

Services were held Oct. 27 in Neill Funeral Home, Camp Hill. Burial was in Rolling Green Memorial Park, Camp Hill.

www.theperryhistorians.org