

Commemorative Biographical Encyclopedia of the Juniata Valley, Comprising the Counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata, and Perry, Pennsylvania, J. M. Runk and Company, Publishers 1897

Mrs. T. H. Butturf, Newport, Perry County, Pa., was born in Centre Township, Perry County, August 9, 1855, daughter of David and Mary (Earhart) Clark. When she was fifteen years of age her parents removed to Newport, where Miss Clark's education was finished. In 1876, she was married to Frank Fitzgerald. He was born June 28, 1846, in Philadelphia, Pa., son of Horatio Nelson and Susan Fitzgerald, was educated in the common schools, and graduated from a business college of that city. His first position in business was in the employ of Stanley G. Flagg & Co., manufacturers of brass fixtures, etc. He first married Mary A. Tarode, who lived only a few months after her marriage. Mr. Fitzgerald engaged in business on his own account in Philadelphia, and held a high position among manufacturer in his line in that city. His health becoming impaired, he retired from business before the year 1876. After his marriage with Miss Clark, he continued to reside in Philadelphia, and died there in May, 1881. Before 1880, Mr. Fitzgerald had attended the Presbyterian Church, but in that year, he became a member of the Reformed Church, of which he was a faithful member for the remainder of his life. He was a man of very estimable character and of a kind disposition; he had many friends, by whom he was greatly esteemed. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald had two children: Charles Nelson, died in infancy, August 24, 1878; and Mary Clark, born July 19, 1879, is attending the Hollidaysburg Seminary.

Horatio Nelson Fitzgerald was born in Philadelphia, and resided all his life in that city. His first wife, Mrs. Susan Fitzgerald, died many years ago; their children are: Horatio N., Jr., deceased; Frank; Charles, resides in Philadelphia; Linda (Mrs. Thomas Huston Craig), of Philadelphia. The father of the family died in his native city in 1894. In the fall of 1881, Mrs. and Miss Fitzgerald removed to Newport, where the former made her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, until her marriage with Mr. Butturf. Mrs. Butturf is one of a family of nine children. She has considerable talent for painting, which seems to be inherited by her daughter, Miss Mary C. Fitzgerald, who not only draws and paints well, but is also a clever elocutionist. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Butturf took place at Newport, March 24, 1884; they have one child, Linda C, who is eleven years of age. Mrs. Butturf is an active member of the Reformed Church.

www.theperryhistorians.org