

Wayne M. Byers, (10 Sep 1918 – 21 Dec 1989), Middletown Press and Journal, December 27, 1989

Wayne M. Byers 71 of Maytown, died Thursday, December 21, at York Hospital, after a brief illness.

He was the husband of Emma E. (Foltz) Byers with whom he celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on April 8.

Born in Newport, Perry County, Pennsylvania, he was the son of the late John and Amy Belle (Markle) Byers. He was a member of the Columbia Bible Church.

In he was a sales clerk at the men's department of Watt & Shand department store Park City and was a retired owner operator of Buyers Pastries of Columbia, for 25 years.

He was a summer baker for Morning Cheer Inc. of Northeast Maryland, is also a baker for the former Baum's Bakery of Palmyra, and a former instructor at the Willow Street Vocational-Technical School.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three sons, James R., Elizabethtown, Dean M. of Lancaster, and Dwight E., of Orlando Florida. Also nine grandchildren, and a sister, Jane Yordy, of Palmyra. He was predeceased by daughter, Juniata Byers in 1965.

Services were held from the Columbia Bible Church on Saturday with the Rev. Clyde Gwin and are ever in Charles Leiphart officiating. Interment was at Gravel Hill Cemetery.

Arrangements were handled by the Rothermel Funeral Home Inc.

www.theperryhistorians.org