

Ray Joseph Campbell, (2 Jul 1920 – 22 Oct 2007), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Ray J. Campbell, age 87, of Oliver Township, Newport, Pa. passed away in The Manor at the Perry Village, in New Bloomfield.

He was born in Newport, the son of Harry F. and Marie (Emery) Campbell. He retired from the former Pennsylvania Railroad, and was a veteran of the Army Air Corps, during World War II. Ray was a former member of the Assembly of God Church, in Newport.

He enjoyed hunting and fishing and was an avid Bingo player.

He was the widower of Audrey (Smith) Campbell

Ray is survived by his companion, Carrie Swalm. Also surviving are sons, John F. Campbell of Newport; David L. Campbell of Liverpool; Ray J. Campbell, of Pittsburgh; daughters, Kathy Bingaman of Newport; Joanne Jole of Florida; a sister, Serena Chapman of Newport; grandchildren, Katie Campbell, Maggie Campbell, LeAnne Campbell, Heather Campbell, MarriFrances Campbell, Audra Bingaman, Amy Shomper, Cristina Wages, and Robert Jole; 6 great grandchildren and his faithful cat, Misty.

He was preceded in death by a son, Richard L. Campbell and sister, Katherine Ulsh.

Funeral services were held at the Myers Funeral Home in Newport, with burial at Newport Cemetery.