

Millar F. Charles, Patriot, Monday, July 11, 1887. A Perry County Man Dies.

Newport, Pa., July 10. – The many friends of Millar F. Charles regret to learn of his death, which occurred Friday morning, of consumption. He had been at Denver, Col., for the past few months, in the hope of regaining his health, but all to no purpose, as he returned home several weeks ago to his mother residing in Buffalo Township, about five miles east of Newport.

Mr. Charles was a very worthy and honorable young man, and well known as a hotel cashier and clerk, he having occupied clerical positions in Philadelphia, New York and Atlantic City.
