

Marlyn R. Clark Sr., (24 Oct 1943 – 20 Jan 2010), Perry County Times, Thursday, February 18, 2010

Marlyn R. Clark Sr., 66, of Duncannon, formerly of Stoystown, Pa., died Wednesday, Jan. 20, 2010 In Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill. He resided with his niece, Gladys M. Stum.

He was born Oct. 24, 1943 in Florence, Pa., to the late Edgar A. and Mabel F. (Hurt) Clark.

He raised chickens and his two dogs, Patill and Sammy, and enjoyed fishing, watching football and NASCAR.

Surviving are seven children, Marlyn R. Jr. of Crestline, Calif., Leisa M. of Arcadia, Calif., Christopher A. of Berlin, Pa., Michael P. of Whittier, Calif., Steven A. of Arcadia, Calif., Pam A. Revello of Acosta, Pa., and Tracy A. Shaffer of Stoystown; two brothers, Orie A. of Charlotte, N.C., and Edgar A. of Legioner, Pa.; a sister, Gladys M. Reed of New Bloomfield; 17 grandchildren, including Samantha Paxton; and a close friend, Jackie J. Clark of Stoystown.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Larry L. and John E.; three sisters, June Swank, Betty L. Clark, his twin sister, and Marilyn J. Clark; and two sons, Waylon R. and Joshua A.

Services, with military honors, were held Jan. 23 in Boyer Funeral Home, New Bloomfield, with the Rev. Anthony C. Hill officiating. Burial was in Indiantown Gap National Cemetery, Anville.

www.theperryhistorians.org