

William Clouser, (Died 20 May 1896), Patriot, Thursday, May 21, 1896; Marysville Brakeman Crushed to Death.

William Clouser, a Northern Central railway brakeman, was crushed to death early yesterday morning while coupling a train of cars to an engine in the yards at Marysville. Clouser was twenty-three years old and single. He lived in Marysville with his mother. The funeral will take place from the Lutheran Church in that place at four o'clock this afternoon.