

Martin B. Cromleigh, (Died 21 Jul 1969), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Martin B. Cromleigh, 54, 221 Center Street, Duncannon, died Monday at Polyclinic Hospital. He was a member of Duncannon Presbyterian Church and was a fireman at Harrisburg State Hospital.

He is survived by two sons, George M. Cromleigh, Duncannon, and Gilbert B. Cromleigh, at home; his mother, Mrs. Ruth A. Cromleigh, Duncannon; five sisters, Mrs. Dora N. Sleigh, Paxtonia; Mrs. Ruth C. Bolden, Marysville; Martha Y. Cromleigh, Duncannon; Mrs. Alice R. Travis, Whittier, Calif. and Mrs. Grace N. Lyman, Summerdale; three brothers, Charles B. Cromleigh, RD 2, Duncannon; Warren E. Cromleigh, Alexandria, Va., and Ralph G. Cromleigh, LaCanada, Calif. and one grandson, Bryan Cromleigh.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the funeral home, 325 High Street, Duncannon, his pastor officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening.

www.theperryhistorians.org