

Fred L. Devinney, (22 Feb 1946 – 8 Nov 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, November 17, 2012

Fred L. Devinney, 66, of Blain died Thursday, Nov. 8, 2012 at home.

He was born Feb. 22, 1946 at Blairs Mills to the late Orlando and Helen Mae (Parson) Devinney.

He was employed at Kirby Kitner Excavating, New Bloomfield, and had worked for Chuck Morrow and Three Mile Island.

He was the widower of Laura B. (Jeffries) Devinney, who died Oct. 3, 2011. Surviving are a daughter, Carol A. Scott, and a son, Ted L., both of Blain; his fiancée, Monica D. Hoover; six siblings, Charles of Fayetteville, Carl of Spring Run, Donna Bishop of McConnellsburg, Linda Johnson of Doylesburg, Audrey Rowles of East Waterford and Barbara Reeder of McConnellsburg; three grandchildren, Rebecca Scott, Rodney Scott Jr. and Tasha Devinney; and a great-grandson, Tyler Scott.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Mary Hockenberry.

Services were held Nov. 13 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with the Rev. Judy Rowles officiating. Burial was in Blain Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Nickel Funeral Home, P.O. Box 910, Loysville 17047.