

Betty S. Dillman, (Died 15 Oct 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, October 27, 2012

Betty S. Dillman, 89, of Northeast Madison Twp., Loysville, died Monday, Oct. 15, 2012 at home.

She retired from West Perry School District as a teacher aide at the Loysville Youth Development Center; a 1941 graduate of Blain Vocational School; a member of Sandy Hill United Church of Christ, where she was a past elder and church pianist, and the church's Ladies Guild, where she was a past treasurer, Blain Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary, Blain Ambulance Club and Retired School Teachers of Perry County; and enjoyed sewing and making quilts, flowers, playing the piano and local history.

She was the widow of Thomas E. Dillman.

Surviving are two daughters, Connie S. Delancey of Shermans Dale and Linda J. Loy of Loysville; five grandchildren, Tracey (Delancey) Mullen, Michael Delancey, Joshua Loy, Becky Loy and Angela (Loy) Reisinger; and seven great-grandchildren, Kara and Walker Delancey, Ava Mullen, Zachary, Julie and Gregory Loy and Sidney Reisinger.

She was preceded in death by three siblings, Maree Kennedy, Ethel Palm and Homer Stroup; and a son-in-law, Robert D. Loy.

Services were held Oct. 20 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with the Rev. Paul Gehris officiating. Burial was in Blain Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Blain Ambulance Club, P.O. Box 7, Blain 17006.