

James Patrick Doyle Jr., (16 Apr 1931 – 9 Oct 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, October 22, 2009

James Patrick Doyle Jr., 78, of Watts Twp., Duncannon, died Friday, Oct. 9, 2009.

He was born April 16, 1931 to the late James P. and Ruth Doyle.

He was a former employee of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and he and his wife were former proprietors of the Doyle Hotel, Doyle Motel and The Quail Call Restaurant, all of Duncannon; a graduate of Duncannon High School and Valley Forge Military Academy and attended Penn State University; an Army veteran of the Korean conflict; a member of Perry Lodge 458 F&AM, American Legion Post 340 and VFW Post 255, both of Duncannon; a longtime announcer of Susquenita football games and a member of the former Lights for Susquenita Committee and campaign and a former Susquenita Midget Football program coach; and enjoyed hunting, fishing and watching his grandsons play football and wrestle.

He was the widower of Kay Yvonne "Vonnie" Doyle.

Surviving are a daughter, Stacey Carson of Dixon, Mo., and grandchildren, Steven, Brandon, Remington, Morgan and Alexis Weigle, all of Bloomsburg.

A memorial service was held Oct. 18 in Ronald C. L. Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, with the Rev. Candance Arnold officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Heart Association, 4999 Louise Drive, Suite 104, Mechanicsburg 17055.

www.theperryhistorians.org