

Clarence S. Duncan, (1 Apr 1910 – 18 May 1978), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Clarence S. Duncan, 68, of Shermans Dale RD2, died Thursday at Carlisle Hospital.

He was a retired employee of Cumberland Valley Roofers Inc., and attended the Landisburg Assembly of God Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Miriam Gamber Duncan; three daughters, Mrs. Chester Christopher, of Carlisle, Mrs. Dennis Dick, of Shermans Dale RD2, and Miss Vesta P., at home; three sons, David G., of Shermans Dale RD1, Maynard A., at home, and Clarence S., Jr., of Kenai, Alaska; three brothers, Chester E., of Boiling Springs, Barnard, of Carlisle, and Maynard of Salina, Calif.; two sisters, Kathryn C. Deitz, of Carlisle RD8, and Mrs. Benjamin A. Garman, of Carlisle RD3; and 12 grandchildren.

Services were Monday at the Landisburg Assembly of God Church, with the Rev. Ronald C. Briggs officiating. Burial was in Landisburg Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org