

Ida May (Stewart ) Duncan, (7 May 1862 – 6 Aug 1933), Newspaper Clipping

Mrs. Ida May Stewart Duncan, wife of P. F. Duncan, Sr., of Duncannon, died Sunday morning at Harrisburg Hospital. She was aged 71 years.

Mrs. Duncan was a daughter of William J. and Hannah (Henry) Stewart, deceased, and was born and always lived in Duncannon. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. B. Boyd Harrington, Harrisburg; Mrs. Henry C. Heil, Elkins Park, and Miss Jean Stewart Duncan, at home, and the following sons: B. Stiles Duncan, W. Stewart Duncan, P. F. Duncan, Jr., of Duncannon, and Robert H. Duncan, an attorney at law of Jacksonville, Fla, and eight grandchildren.

Mrs. Duncan was a member of the Duncannon Presbyterian Church for over fifty-years and took an interest in the various church activities, having served as treasurer of the Missionary Society for many years. She was a member of the Perry Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and was a direct descendant of Patrick Henry, of Virginia.

She was a refined and cultured woman of lovely character, a kind mother possessed of charming social qualities that endeared her to all her many friends. All who knew her grieve with her devoted family over her passing.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Duncannon this afternoon at 2:30. The Rev. Raymond H. Wilson, pastor of the Duncannon Presbyterian Church, conducted the service and the burial was in the Duncannon Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org