

Lloyd Sylvester Durham (22 May 1893 – 4 Jun 1978), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Lloyd S Durham, 85, of 122 Verbeke St, Marysville, died Sunday, June 4 at Holy Spirit Hospital.

He was a retired employee of Bethlehem Steel Corp., and a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife Mrs. Effie C Durham, a daughter, Mrs. Erwin Grunt [sic] of Pottsville; a stepson Robert Norman of Marysville; four sisters, Mrs. Pearl Loper and Mrs. Lillie Hockenberry, both of Duncannon RD, five brothers, John Durham of California, Linus Durham of Carlisle, Samuel Durham of Newport RD, Patrick Durham of Duncannon RD and Clarence Durham of New Jersey; six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Services were held Wednesday, June 7 at the funeral home at 212 Maple Ave, Marysville, with Rev William H Reist, pastor of Marysville Church of God officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Marysville RD1.