

Harry Raymond Egolf, (18 Feb 1935 – 14 Dec 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, December 29, 2012

Harry Raymond Egolf, 77, of Landisburg died Friday, Dec. 14, 2012 at home.

He was born Feb. 18, 1935 to the late Charles Raymond and Mary Romaine (Rice) Egolf.

He was employed by The Bank of Landisburg for 51 years, holding many different positions, including CEO and president, and was a member of the board of directors; a graduate of Green Park Union High School and attended Gettysburg and Penn State colleges; served overseas in the Army as a Chinese Mandarin linguist; served on community organizations and boards throughout the years; had a passion for sports and participated in many, including soccer, baseball, basketball and softball; and an avid hunter and fisherman and founder of the Egolf Hunting Camp and Lodge.

Surviving are his wife of 55 years, Joanne; children, Ray and his wife Karen and granddaughters, Amanda and Katie, David and his wife and granddaughters, Gabrielle and Emma, and Patrick and his wife Julie and grandsons, Andrew and Noah, and Kristen and her husband Patrick and granddaughters, Shanna and Lillee; a brother, Charles Allen Egolf; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a cousin, Claire Rice Martin.

Services were held Dec. 19 in Carlisle Evangelical Free Church.

Burial was in Landisburg Cemetery.

Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, handled arrangements.