

Adele L. (Peck) Ernest, (11 Apr 1928 – 30 Jul 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, July 30, 2010

Adele L. Ernest, 81, of Loysville and formerly of Ickesburg, died Monday, July 20, 2009 in the Manor at Perry Village, New Bloomfield.

She was born April 11, 1928 at Liverpool to the late Marlin and Gladis May Boyer Peck.

She had been employed by Eileen Hope Dress Factory, Newport and Ickesburg; along with her husband, had been very active with Madison Grange, Loysville; and enjoyed reading, gardening and cooking Sunday dinner for her family.

She was the widow of Karl M. “Dutch” Ernest.

Surviving are two sons, David E. and Richard L., both of Ickesburg; two grandchildren, Heather Cataldi of Loysville and Erica Lee Horvath of Dover; and three great-grandchildren, Brigitte, Brady and Nolan.

She was preceded in death by three siblings, Sidney and Kenneth Peck and Claude Bowers.

Services were held July 23 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with the Rev. Elaine Moyer officiating. Burial was in Buffalo Cemetery, Ickesburg.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Manor at Perry Village, 213 E. Main St., New Bloomfield 17068.