

Elvina (Sheibley) Flickinger, (19 Feb 1836 – 16 Feb 1912), Sentinel, February 17, 1912

Mrs. Elvina Flickinger, an estimable citizen of this place, died at the home of her son, John M. Flickinger, 135 S. West St., Friday evening about 5:00 of general disability, aged 75 years. She was the widow of George W. Flickinger, who died in 1906. They formerly resided in Perry county and Middlesex. Mrs. Flickinger's maiden name was Sheibley, and she resided in Perry County. She was a member of the Reformed church near Carlisle, of which Rev. H.W. Wissler is pastor.

Five children survive, J.M. with whom she lived, Mrs. Anna Rhoads, Mrs. Lida (Ida) Uhler and George of Carlisle; and (David) Newton, of Andersonburg, Perry county. Mrs. James Flickinger, of Marysville, is a sister and the last of 16 children.

Funeral from the home of John M. Flickinger, Tuesday afternoon at 1:00. Interment at Kutz's church. Perry county papers will please copy this notice.