

William Robert Flickinger, (9 Apr 1939 – 6 Dec 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday December 22, 2012

William Robert Flickinger, 73, of Blain died Thursday, Dec. 6, 2012.

He was born April 9, 1939 at New Germantown to the late Frank A. Sr. and Mildred (Hockenberry) Flickinger.

He retired after 30 years with the West Perry School District, hauled kindergarten children for 29 years and had worked 14 years for C.H. Masland and Sons, Carlisle; was an antique dealer for nearly 50 years; of the Methodist faith; a member of Blain Fire Company and Blain Ambulance Club; and an avid supporter of dirt track racing and enjoyed hunting and bingo.

Surviving are his wife of 51 years, Thelma A. (Britcher) Flickinger; three sons, Brian W. of New Germantown and Gregory L. and Scott W., both of Elliottsburg; a brother, Kenneth of East Waterford; a sister, Betty Pennabaker of Loysville; and a granddaughter, Sara.

He was preceded in death by a daughter.

Services were held Dec. 11 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with the Rev. Mary Medkeff-Rose officiating.

Burial was in Blain Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Heartland Home and Hospice, 1200 Walnut Bottom Road, Carlisle 17015.