

Donna L. (Starner) Freet, (3 Apr 1938 – 17 Jul 2012), Perry County Times, August 2, 2012

Donna L. Freet, 74, of Loysville died Tuesday, July 17, 2012 at Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill.

She was born April 3, 1938 in Hanover to the late Warren H. Starner and Helen F. (Roush) Dengler.

She worked in the food service industry in various jobs, ranging from cashier to restaurant owner, until her retirement; attended York Springs High School; and was an avid Philadelphia Phillies fan and enjoyed flower arranging, cards, board games and camping.

She was the widow of Paul R. Freet.

Surviving are four daughters and their families, Rochelle Grogan (Mary Waters), Kathy Raskey, Paula (Freet) Barrick (Jay Brown), Holly (Freet) Good (Rich Good); six grandchildren, Eric Doucette, Adam Raskey, Brandi Freet, Ashley Bushey, James Veal and Trina King; four great-grandchildren, Ryan, Kayden, Olivia and Lillian; and two stepbrothers, Larry Haines and Richard Dengler.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Shirley M. Hoffman, and a stepsister, Bobbie Ann Trafka.

Services were held July 23 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with Donna Stoak officiating.

Burial was in Sunnyside Cemetery, York Springs.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Cancer Society, 2 Lemoyne Drive, Suite 101, Lemoyne 17043.