

Lucian B. Fry Jr., (6 Oct 1924 – 24 Sep 2009), Perry County Times, Wednesday, October 07, 2009

Lucian B. "Uncle Junior" Fry Jr., 84, of Summerdale died Thursday, Sept. 24, 2009 at home.

He was born Oct. 6, 1924 in Duncannon to the late Lucian B. Sr. and Florence C. (Gelbaugh) Fry.

He was employed as a wastewater treatment operator for East Pennsboro Twp. and was the township's oldest employee; an Army veteran of World War II; and enjoyed hunting, baking, picking berries to make wine and a fan of Penn State football and the Philadelphia Eagles.

Surviving are three sisters, Alberta Pottiger of Duncannon, Joyce Gundy of Linglestown and Catherine "Fudge" Miller of Enola; two nephews, Jack Fry of Summerdale and Clyde Fry of Dauphin; three nieces, Barb Miller and Dianna Deimler, both of Enola, and Pat Simmons of Columbus, Ga.; a great-nephew, Jared Fry; and a sister-in-law, Vera Fry of Enola.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Clyde, Robert and Jack Fry.

Services were held Sept. 29 in Michael J. Shalonis Funeral Home, Marysville, with the Rev. Dr. Charles D. Hiller officiating.

Burial was in Union Cemetery, Duncannon.

Memorial contributions may be made to Thomas F. Sqrignoli Scholarship Fund, EP Administration Building, 890 Valley Street, Enola 17025.