

Charles C. Gamber, (5 Jun 1895 – 30 Mar 1963), Patriot, Monday, April 1, 1963

Charles C. Gamber, 67, of Hummelstown RD2, who died at his home Saturday, was the father of Mrs. Florence I. Books, Palmyra RD1; Mrs. Dora M. Weaver, Grantville RD1, and Stewart E. Gamber, Palmyra RD1.

Gamber, a farmer for the last seven years, was a retired employee of the Phoenix Steel Company, Harrisburg. He was a member of Shope's Bethel Church of God, West Hanover Twp. and the Grantville Volunteer Fire Company.

His other survivors are his wife, the former Ethel I Reed; three other daughters, Mrs. Edna M. Failor of Mechanicsburg; Mrs. M. Alberta Ickes of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Ethel C. Miller of Linglestown RD1; three other sons, Ralph C. of Hummelstown RD2; Robert L. of Shiremanstown, and John E. of Mechanicsburg.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Bertha A. Wallace of Camp Hill, and Mrs. Florence Haas of Duncannon; a brother, Elmer H. of West Fairview, and 21 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1 pm at the funeral home in Shellsville. The Rev. Charles D. Rissinger, his pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Snyder's Cemetery, Perry County. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 7 - 9 pm.