

Richard L. Gardner, (13 Jun 1942 – 17 Sep 2010), Perry County Times Thursday September 30, 2010

Richard L. “Red” Gardner, 68, of Richfield died Friday, Sept. 17, 2010.

He was born June 13, 1942 in Newport to the late Howard and Esther Gardner.

He worked for Capital Products, Mechanicsburg; was a member of East Waterford Ambulance League; and enjoyed fishing and hunting.

Surviving are his companion, Elizabeth Lewis of East Waterford; two sons, Richard of West Virginia and William of Oil City, three daughters, Deanna Wakefield of Richfield, Wanda Lehman of Mifflintown and Theresa Boyer of Oil City; two brothers, Clyde of Newport and Charles of Elliottsburg; a sister, Ruth Ann Fry of Newport; several grandchildren, including Misty Gardner of Mifflintown, Bridget Gardner of Oil City, Elizabeth Kocher of Mifflintown, Michaelene Kocher of Richfield and Ronald Wakefield Jr. of Richfield; and several great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Anthony and Dennis Gardner, and a sister, Alberta Wetzler.

A memorial service was held Sept. 25 in David Myers Funeral Home, Newport, with Pastor Jerry O’Connell officiating.

www.theperryhistorians.org