

Dianne E. (Baker) Garman (21 Dec 1943 – 3 Aug 2008), Patriot-News, Tuesday, August 5, 2008

ELLIOTSBURG - Dianne E. Garman, 64 years old of Centre Township, Elliotsburg, died Sunday, August 3, 2008 in the Holy Spirit Hospital.

She was born December 21, 1943 to the late Charles W. and Elvena (Dietz) Baker.

Diane was a secretary for Judge C. Joseph Rehkamp and Judge Keith B. Quigley. She was a member of the Newport First Church of God and graduate of Newport High School, class of 1961. She enjoyed knitting and crocheting. She was an Elvis Pressley fan and race car fan.

She is survived by her husband Kenneth E. Garman; daughter, Charla D. Baum of Loysville; son, Keith E. Garman of Ickesburg; grandchildren, Derick J. Garman, Patrick A. Bailor, Chantz P. Baum, and Heather E. Garman; great grandchild, Jaxton Garman. She was preceded in death by brother, Richard Dietz and grandson, Chase P. Baum.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday at 11 AM in the Newport First Church of God, with the Reverend Cheryl Dorman officiating.

Private burial will be in the Newport Cemetery.