

Bertha V. (Hartman) Heck Garnish, (8 Aug 1911 – 14 Oct 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, October 22, 2009

Bertha V. Garnish, 98, formerly of Chambersburg, died Wednesday, Oct. 14, 2009 in Nipple Convalescent Home, Liverpool.

She was born Aug. 8, 1911 in Letterkenny Twp., Franklin County, to Emery Wilmer and Daisy Florence (Hollinger) Hartman.

She was a longtime employee of Stanley Manufacturing Co.; a member of King Street United Brethren Church, Chambersburg, and its Buds of Promise Sunday School Class.

She was the widow of John M. Garnish.

Surviving are two daughters, Phyllis J. Wishard of Shippensburg and Nancy L. Colestock of Newport; two stepsons, John M. Garnish of Clearwater, Fla., and Richard L. Garnish of Clemmons, N.C.; eight grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a stepson, Gerald Garnish; three sisters; and three brothers.

Burial was in Parklawn Memorial Gardens, Chambersburg.

Ronald C.L. Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Nipple Convalescent Home, 100 S. Front St., Liverpool 17045.

www.theperryhistorians.org