

Harry Porter Gibney, (30 Nov 1932 – 5 Jun 2015), Perry County Times, June 20, 2015

Harry Porter "Pap/Rube" Gibney, 82, of Sandy Hollow Road, New Bloomfield, died Friday, June 5, 2015, at Stonebridge Nursing Home, Duncannon.

He was born Nov. 30, 1932, in Bowmansdale to Porter L. and Elsie E. Shultz Gibney.

He was a carpenter, bulldozer operator, truck driver and worked for Carroll Twp. for the past 17 years; an Army veteran of the Korean War; and enjoyed reminiscing about the "old days," telling big stories, his pets and his beer.

Surviving are his wife of 58 years, Norma Jean (Sunday) Gibney; three sons, Tim of Shermans Dale and Joe and Harry Jr. "Butch," both of New Bloomfield; a daughter, Barb Roddy of New Bloomfield; a brother, Max (Marvin) of Thompsontown; two sisters, Joyce Clouser of Newville and Joan Johnson of Elysburg; six grandchildren, Jamie, Danielle, Jason and Cory Gibney, Nikki Roddy and Cortney Fesser; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Shirley Sheibley.

A service was held June 10 in Boyer Family Funeral Home, New Bloomfield, with the Rev. Mike Witmer officiating. Burial, with military honors by the Perry County Honor Guard, was in Evergreen Cemetery, Duncannon.

www.theperryhistorians.org