

Paul E. Grubb, (3 Oct 1931 – 27 Sep 2010), Perry County Times Thursday October 7, 2010

Paul E. “Izzy” Grubb, 78, of Millerstown died Monday, Sept. 27, 2010 in Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill.

He was born Oct. 3, 1931 in Millerstown to the late Charles and Eva (Meloy) Grubb.

He was retired from the former New Cumberland Army Depot; an Army veteran of the Korean War; and a New York Yankees fan.

Surviving are his wife, Shirley (Hostler) Grubb; a daughter, Jeri Davis of Liverpool; a brother, Charles of Millerstown; three sisters, Evelyn Grubb of Millerstown, Dorothy Hoffman of Liverpool and Jane Baughman of New Bloomfield; three grandsons, Jarrold Davis, Drew Davis and Jordan Davis; and two great-grandchildren, Grant and Rowen Davis.

He was preceded in death by a brother, seven sisters and a nephew.

Services were held Oct. 1 in David Myers Funeral Home, Newport, with the Rev. Patricia Woolever officiating. Burial, with military honors by New Bloomfield VFW, was Riverview Cemetery, Millerstown.

Memorial contributions may be made to Millerstown United Methodist Church, 702 E. Sunbury St., Millerstown 17062, or Millerstown Ambulance League, P.O. Box 34, Millerstown.