

Priscilla May (Duncan) Harrington, (2 May 1890 – 28 Oct 1977), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Mrs. Priscilla Duncan Harrington, 87, of 309 N. Second Street, Harrisburg died Friday at her home.

She was a member of Market Square United Presbyterian Church and the Colonial Dames of America, and a board member of the YWCA. She was a former board member of the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Red Cross and was former house chairman of the Harrisburg Civic Club. She was a native of Duncannon and a graduate of Wilson College, Chambersburg.

She was the widow of Boyd Harrington.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Priscilla, of Harrisburg; two sons, B. Boyd, Jr., of Ormond Beach, Fla., and Patrick D., of Kirkwood, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. Henry C. Heil, of Larchmont, N. Y.; and eight grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday at Market Square United Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Dr. Robert H. French, her pastor, officiating. Burial was in Duncannon Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org