Death of Mrs. W. B. Hart, Widow of State Treasurer Hart, Had Been Invalid Since His Death

Salome B. Hart, widow of the late Capt. William B. Hart, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home, 1901 North Front Street, aged 65 years. Mrs. Hart had been an invalid practically from the date of the death of her husband, who was State Treasurer when he died in 1889. This was principally responsible for removing her from active life, although she possessed a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Hart was a member of Pine Street Presbyterian Church. Before marriage she was Miss Boyer, of Norristown.

She is survived by two children – Ella L., at home, and Lane S., Jr., of Duncannon.

The funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at 1901 North Front Street. In the absence from the city of Rev. Dr. George S. Chambers, the pastor of Pine Street Church, the officiating minister has not yet been chosen. Interment will be made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.
