

George M. Hetrick, (Died 11 Dec 1919), Patriot, Monday, December 16, 1919, Funeral for Farmer Stricken on Highway.

Newport, Dec 14. – Funeral services were held yesterday for George M. Hetrick, of Juniata Heights, a suburb of Newport. Mr. Hetrick last Wednesday morning was found prostrate in the highway several miles from here. He had gone to his farm in Juniata Township for a load of wood, and while returning was evidently stricken with apoplexy.

The first to come his way after the mishap was George Fleisher, carrier on Rural delivery route No. 1 from Newport, who got help and Mr. Hetrick was taken to his home, where he lived until 3.30 p.m., Wednesday, not having regained consciousness. He came to this place from Juniata Township six years ago and is survived by his wife.

Burial was in Newport Cemetery.
