

Nicholas Hetrick (25 Nov 1820 – 16 Aug 1900), Newport News, August 20, 2900 and August 23, 1900,

Nicholas Hetrick one of the oldest persons of the valley, died at the home of his nephew Alfred Hetrick on last Thursday. Since the death of his mother many years ago he has been the sole occupant of his house. Here, while picking cherries in the early part of the summer he fell from a tree and sustained injuries which were the indirect cause of his death. He was an honest and industrious citizen, though very determined in his own way. Interment was made on Saturday at Wright's graveyard.
