

History of Erie County, Pennsylvania. Containing A History of the County; its Townships, Towns, Villages, Schools, Churches, Industries, etc.; Portraits of Early Settlers and Prominent Men; Biographies; History of Pennsylvania. Statistical and Miscellaneous Matter, etc., etc. Illustrated. Chicago: Warner, Beers & Co., 1884.

George Hipple, miller, Waterford, was born in Perry Co., Penn., in 1831, and came to Erie Co., Penn., in 1854, where he engaged as miller in the old mill at Waterford, located on the spot of his present place of business. After remaining about five years, he moved to Erie City, where he worked fifteen years, when the old Waterford mill burned down, and he moved back and built the present mill on Le Boeuf Creek, about a half mile south of Waterford. He was then associated with T. P. Judson, whose interest is now owned by his son, T. N. Judson. This is one of the best mills in Waterford Township; has four sets of buhrs and a set of rollers, run by water and steam, and has a capacity of 100 bushels of wheat per day. It is under the immediate control of our subject, and is doing a first-class business. Mr. Hipple married, in 1854, Miss Julia, sister of David Kinaman, whose biography appears elsewhere in this work. Three children were born to this union, viz., Ida, wife of Marshal Moore, Anna and Sadie. Mr. Hipple is a member of the A. O. U. W.; an Anti-Monopolist in politics.

www.theperryhistorians.org