

Glenn O. Holley, (26 Aug 1939 – 10 Oct 2002), Patriot-News, Saturday, October 12, 2002

Glenn O. Holley, 63, of 12 Bucks Valley Road, died Thursday, at Holy Spirit Hospital.

He was born August 26, 1939, in Juniata Township, Perry County.

He was Director of Keystone Oliver Collector's Association of PA; member of Hart-Parr Oliver Collector's Association; Duncannon Sportsmen's Association; Locust Antique Machinery Club, in McClure, PA; Nittany Antique Machinery Association, in Centre Hall, PA; Sherman's Valley Heritage Days Club, in Blain, PA; Tuscarora Valley Heritage Association; an avid participant of the Perry County Fair Association; the Perry County Old Iron Club; and his hobby was antique farm tractors and he was an avid hunter.

He was a retired plumber from the Local #520.

Surviving are his wife, Loretta Walleth Holley; sons, Kevin Holley, Nelson Holley, both of Carlisle; daughter, Deborah Trent of Palmyra; step-son, Joe Stine of Dauphin; mother, Kathryn Weibley Holley of Duncannon; brother, Carl H. Holley of Millerstown; sisters, Geraldine M. Garcy of Mechanicsburg, Catherine E. Hummel of New Bloomfield, Jennie L. Brown of Shermans Dale, Grace J. Hummel of Newport; 7 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; 4 step- grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, from the David M. Myers Funeral Home, Newport, at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Michael A. Witmer, officiating. Viewing will be from 6-8 p.m. on Sunday at the funeral home. Burial will be in Pine Grove Cemetery, Newport.

Contributions may be made to Perry County Fair Association, P.O. Box 251, Newport, PA 17074.