

Robert Eugene Holtry, (3 Feb 1925 – 29 Nov 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, December 10, 2009

Robert Eugene Holtry, 84, formerly of Carlisle and Shermans Dale, died Sunday, Nov. 29, 2009 at Green Ridge Village, Newville.

He was born Feb. 3, 1925 in Carlisle to the late Ervin and Helen Lindsay Holtry.

He was a lifelong farmer and after retiring from farming he worked for Morrison Farm Equipment for 14 years; a graduate of Mechanicsburg High School; a 4-H leader in Cumberland County for 25 years and Perry County; president and director of Cumberland County Wool growers and a sheep superintendent for Carlisle and Perry County fairs; a delegate for the Farm Service Office of Cumberland County; and enjoyed hunting and fishing.

He was the widower of Gladys Romaine Raudabaugh Holtry and Doris Metz Holtry.

Surviving are three sons, Kenneth of Tampa, Fla., Wayne of Mechanicsburg and Ray of Newville, two stepdaughters, Deloris Kidd of New Bloomfield and Barbara Singleton of Landisburg; a stepson, Jerry Frederick of Mooresville, N.C.; two brothers, William L. of Plainfield and John E. of Mechanicsburg; a sister, Ethel M. Myers of Boiling Springs; seven grandchildren; five step grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and four step great-grandchildren.

Services were held Dec. 4 in Hoffman-Roth Funeral Home & Crematory, Carlisle, with the Rev. Fred Miller officiating.

Burial was in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Churchtown.

Memorial contributions may be made to any charity.