

George Washington Huffman, (17 Apr 1854 – 8 Apr 1940), Winterset Madisonian, Winterset, Iowa, April 10, 1940; Pioneer Succumbs

George W Huffman & Nancy Cathryn Duffield
taken around 1885

George W. Huffman, one of the oldest pioneers in Madison County, who had spent all but 10 years of his life in Webster Township, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carl Haymond, in that community. He was 85 years of age.

Mr. Huffman was a life-long resident of Iowa. He was born in Shelby County on April 17, 1854, the son of John and Amanda Huffman. As a boy he came with his parents to this county where he was reared and spent the remainder of his life. In September, 1879, he was married to Mary A. Hutchinson at Elizabeth, Pa. They were the parents of three children, two of whom preceded the father in death, followed by the mother, who died in 1882.

On Dec. 16, 1885, he was married to Kathryn Duffield at New Virginia. They were the parents of four children. The second Mrs. Huffman died in 1895.

Two other children also preceded their father in death, Everett W. Huffman in 1921 and Mrs. Amanda Roy in 1925.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Klingman and Mrs. Esther Haymond; a son, Walker S. Huffman, all of Winterset; 15 grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; a brother, John Q. Huffman of Omaha; and a sister, Mrs. Emma Bird of Des Moines.
