

Thelma Ardella Jones, (18 Nov 1915 – 17 Dec 1937), Duncannon Record, Thursday, December 23, 1937

Miss Thelma Ardella Jones, daughter of the late Paul and Myrtle Jones, died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Anna Huggins. 111 Market Street. She was 33 years of age and her only survivors are several aunts.

She was a graduate of the William Penn High School, Harrisburg, class of 1932, and was a members of the Camp Curtin Methodist Episcopal Church.

Miss Jones had been in ill health for some time past but through her long illness had been tenderly cared for by Mrs. Huggins. She was a good Christian girl and her many friends will learn of her death with deep regret. Just why such a noble character should be removed from this earth to the great beyond in the morning of her life is a question that can be answered only by Him who doeth all things well.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Huggins Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. R. H. Wilson, of this place, officiating, assisted by Rev. A. S. Fasick, of Harrisburg. Interment was made in the Duncannon cemetery.
