

George H. Kautz, (Died 26 Jul 1979), The Gettysburg Times, Friday, July 27, 1979

George H. Kautz, 78, of Duncannon R.2 died Thursday at the Polyclinic Medical Center.

He was a retired employee of Penn Central Railroad, and a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad trainmen.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ina L. Kautz; six daughters, Mrs. Sara Snyder of Duncannon R.1; Mrs. Dorothy Black of Enola; Mrs. Patricia Clark of Palmyra; Mrs. Joyce Dundorff of Mechanicsburg RD; Mrs. Jona Calaman of Carlisle RD, and Mrs. Margie Shaffer of Harrisburg; a son, James of Muncy; three stepdaughter, Mrs. Joyce Gamble of Duncannon; Mrs. Brenda Mullin of Duncannon R.2, and Mrs. Genevieve Stine of Dillsburg; three sisters, Mrs. Helen Schriver of Lemoyne, Mrs. Ida Kennedy of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Jessie Stiles of Enola; three brothers, James of Mechanicsburg RD; Robert of Enola and Morris of Dauphin; and a number of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and step grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the funeral home at 325 High Street, Duncannon. Rev. Merrell H. Kephart will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening.

www.theperryhistorians.org