

History of the State of Kansas, Atchison County, William G. Cutler, Published in 1883 by A.T. Andreas, Chicago, IL

Levi Kell, merchant, was born in Perry County, Pa., July 30, 1828. Resided in Pennsylvania until 1854, when he removed to Clinton County, Ill. Was engaged in farming, having a farm 180 acres there. In June, 1881, came to Kansas, and after a residence of about two months in Greenwood County he located at Hartford where, in connection with his son-in-law, D. C. Bernheisel. He built a commodious brick storehouse, and engaged in general merchandising under the firm name of Bernheisel & Kell. They carry a well selected stock and do a good business. Is a member of the Baptist Church.

Married Miss Eliza A. Eutrerkin, of Clinton County, Ill., September, 1856, by which marriage he has had six children, of whom Luelia, John M., Henry W., and Bessie F. are now living.

www.theperryhistorians.org