

William S. Kell, (20 Sep 1930 -25 Apr 2005), Patriot-News, Wednesday, April 27, 2005

New Bloomfield - William S. Kell, 74, of Centre Township, New Bloomfield, died Monday, April 25, 2005 in the Harrisburg Hospital.

He was born September 20, 1930 in Marietta, PA, to the late William S. and Minnie "Comp" Kell.

He had attended the former Bible Baptist Church, Newport.

He raised show pigeons and was a member of the American King Club, National Pigeon Association, Eastern King Club, and the White Rose Pigeon Association. He loved coon hunting and fishing.

Surviving are his wife of 54 years, Edna M. "Page" Kell; sons, Larry L. Kell of Millerstown, Jerry L. Kell of Newport, and Michael A. Kell of Duncannon; daughters, Mildred Kell Shepherd of Marysville, and Betty Kell Hockensmith of New Bloomfield; 13 grandchildren; one step-grandchild; and nine great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a son, William S. Kell, Jr. and a grandson, Shawn M. Hetrick.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday from the David Myers Funeral Home, Newport, with viewing from 10 a.m. until service time. Burial will follow in St. Peter's Cemetery, Landisburg.