

Emma M. "Ick" (Hockenberry) Klinepeter, (26 Aug 1922 – 9 Apr 2007), Patriot-News, Wednesday, April 11, 2007

Emma M. "Ick" Klinepeter, 84, of Duncannon, passed on Monday, April 9, 2007 in Perry Village.

She was born in Duncannon, PA on August 26, 1922, to the late Wilbur and Mary (Harp) Hockenberry.

She was retired from the former Harrisburg State Hospital.

She was a member of Roseglen United Methodist Church, Duncannon, and a former member and President of the VFW Post #255 Ladies Auxiliary.

Surviving are her husband, Howard A. Klinepeter; two daughters, Sally Salyards of Georgia, and Mary K. Myers of Duncannon; a stepson, David Klinepeter of Duncannon; a sister, Margaret Gallagher of Millersburg; six grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by four brothers, George Hockenberry, Charles Hockenberry, Harry Hockenberry and Earl Hockenberry.

Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m., on Friday, April 13, 2007 in Hill Cemetery, Watts Township, PA.

Arrangements are being handled by the Ronald C. L. Smith Funeral Home, 325 N. High Street, Duncannon.

Memorial contributions may be made to Roseglen United Methodist Church, 722 New Bloomfield Road, Duncannon, PA 17020. Smith

www.theperryhistorians.org