

Douglas Eugene Landis, (Died 11 Jan 2000), Patriot-News, Thursday, January 13, 2000

LIVERPOOL -- Douglas Eugene 'Pork' Landis, 39, of 203 N. Market St., died Tuesday at home.

He was a machinist for Appleton Papers, Camp Hill; a graduate of Greenwood High School; a Lutheran; and a member of Liverpool Volunteer Fire Company, Liverpool American Legion Post 364, Pennsylvania Dirt Karting Association and Newport Order of Owls. He liked racing of all kinds.

Surviving are a son, Christopher Allen Landis of Liverpool; his parents, Earl L. and Pauline M. Frey Landis of Liverpool RR 2; and three brothers, Steven M. of Liverpool RR 1, Timothy L. of Liverpool RR 2 and Donald L. of McAlisterville RR 1.

Memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in Garman Funeral Home, Liverpool.

There will be no viewing.

Memorial contributions may be made to Liverpool Volunteer Fire Company, P.O. Box 144, Liverpool 17045.

www.theperryhistorians.org